Dear Colleague

We are delighted to announce the first joint conference between the British HIV Association (BHIVA) and the British Association for Sexual Health and HIV (BASHH) which will be held at the Burlington Hotel, Dublin on 20–23 April 2005.

Our local host will be Professor Fiona Mulcahy who is based at St James’s Hospital in Dublin and who has an active role in both associations. The conference will be formally opened on Wednesday evening with a Civic Welcome Reception at City Hall. With an early start planned the following morning we hope that many delegates will arrive on Wednesday evening to enjoy this occasion at a spectacular venue, and then to have the opportunity to sample some of what Dublin has to offer. We recommend that you book your flights early as in many cases prices will increase significantly nearer the time of the conference.

The preliminary programme has been prepared and three high-quality plenary sessions have been scheduled for speakers to present the very latest research across a broad number of fields. Thursday and Friday will essentially be devoted to oral research presentations with specialists from both associations being invited to present on topics in HIV medicine, genito-urinary medicine and sexual health. For those who wish to submit an abstract please refer to the appropriate pages in this announcement where you will find all the information you will require. The Abstract Review Committee will only review abstracts which are submitted prior to the abstract deadline of 28 January 2005.

For the very first time we will also be inviting applications for the Brian Gazzard Lectureship in HIV Medicine and the Brian Gazzard Annual Scholarship Award. In addition, there are a number of other awards available at this conference. For further details of each of these awards please refer to the relevant pages of this announcement.

For those who wish to register for the conference please note that the deadline for reduced registration fees is 18 February 2005 and we would urge all to register early to take advantage of these rates. The registration fee includes access to all scientific sessions including satellite symposia as well as refreshments and lunch throughout the duration of the conference.

This year a conference hotel has been nominated, which is the Burlington Hotel. Special rates have been negotiated with the hotel and as in previous years we would again encourage all to book early as there is only a limited allocation. In addition, accommodation has been arranged at a selection of other hotels nearby providing a wide range of choice to delegates.

We have arranged an exciting social programme in Dublin. This programme begins with a civic welcome reception at City Hall on Wednesday evening, a buffet supper at Guinness Storehouse, and finally the Gala Dinner which will be held at the Royal Hospital Kilmainham. Places are limited for both the Thursday and Friday evenings and should you wish to attend, it is essential that you book early in order to avoid disappointment. A sightseeing programme has also been arranged for accompanying persons.

We look forward to seeing you in Dublin for what we hope will be both an enjoyable and stimulating conference.

Dr Margaret Johnson
Chair, BHIVA

Dr Angela Robinson
President, BASHH

CONFERENCE INFORMATION

Venue: Burlington Hotel, Upper Leeson Street, Dublin 4. Tel: +353 1 660 5222 Fax: +353 1 660 8436

Registration procedure
To register, complete the registration form and return with your payment to the Conference Secretariat as soon as possible. Please be sure to complete the form fully as this includes information on what will be printed on your name badge and for which social events you will be registered. Early booking is highly recommended to avoid disappointment.

Registration includes access to all scientific sessions, including satellite symposia, the exhibition area, refreshments and lunch throughout the duration of the conference. All registered delegates will receive a copy of the final programme and abstract book in their delegate packs which will be handed out at the conference.

Registration rates and policies
The registration rates are published on the registration form. The standard registration fee applies only if both the registration form and payment are received by the 18 February 2005 deadline. Current BHIVA and BASHH members can take advantage of the discounted registration rates along with those applying for BHIVA membership at the time of registering. Anyone who wishes to apply for BASHH membership would need to contact the BASHH secretariat first in order for their application to be processed (approx 3 months) prior to registering at the member rate. All industry and commercial employees would need to register at the industry rate regardless of whether they are BHIVA or BASHH members. Only registrations which are accompanied by full payment in sterling made payable to BHIVA/BASHH Conference will be accepted and processed. It remains the responsibility of the delegate to ensure that payment by any trust or department is received by the Conference Secretariat by the due date. Please note that it is the policy of the conference secretariat not to invoice delegates for individual registrations. Confirmations of registration will be posted after registrations have been fully processed and payment has been taken.

Delegate badges
Badges must be worn at all times to gain access to the lecture theatre, dining and exhibition areas.

Continuing Professional Development (CPD)
Medical staff in career grade posts who are enrolled with one of the Royal Medical Colleges for Continuing Professional Development will be entitled to receive CPD credits at the rate of one CPD credit per conference hour (exclusive of travel, refreshments and social events). Please be advised that the attendance list for this conference will be forwarded to the Royal College of Physicians.

Cancellation
Providing that written notice is received by 18 March 2005, the registration fee will be refunded less a £50 administration charge. No refunds will be made for any cancellations after this date.

Social Events
There are three separate organised social events which you can chose to attend, the Welcome Reception, Buffet Supper and Gala Dinner. Spaces are limited and will be allocated on a first-come first-served basis. To try and ensure that funds are not wasted you will be required to purchase a ticket to attend the Gala Dinner on the Friday evening. Please indicate on the registration form if you wish to attend any of the social events as you will require a ticket for entry. If you cannot attend, please let the Conference Secretariat know at your earliest convenience. No refunds can be given. Please also note that sightseeing tours have been arranged for delegates attending the conference. Please refer to the relevant pages in this announcement for further details.

Abstracts
If you wish to submit an abstract then please refer to the preparation instructions contained within this announcement. An abstract submission form will need to be completed and forwarded to the Conference Secretariat. All delegates wishing to submit abstracts need to be registered for the conference before their submission will be considered by the Abstract Review Committee. The deadline for abstract submission is 28 January 2005.

Accommodation
Please note that the registration fee does not include accommodation. You can arrange accommodation by booking online at www.ovation.ie/bhivabashh2005 or by using the form in this announcement and forwarding it to Ovations who are the official accommodation booking service for the conference. Please note that the official conference hotel is the Burlington.

Accompanying persons
Accompanying persons’ fees includes attendance at the Welcome Reception, Buffet Supper and Gala Dinner. Each event is individually priced and details can be found on the Registration Form. Accompanying persons can also take advantage of the sightseeing and tour programme that has been arranged for delegates attending the conference. Please refer to the relevant pages in this announcement for further details.

BHIVA community registration
Community registration places are limited and will be allocated as fairly as possible, in principle on a first-come first-served basis, and up to a maximum of two registrations per community group. The deadline to receive applications is 18 February 2005. To apply for a community registration place please follow the above registration procedure indicating on the form ‘Community registration application’. Please attach a brief resume of the aims and objectives of your organisation. Successful applicants will be acknowledged shortly after the 18 February 2005 when all applications will be reviewed. Please note that it is necessary for applicants to purchase a Gala Dinner ticket if they wish to attend this event.

Exhibition
If you are interested in exhibiting at the conference then please contact the Conference Secretariat to request an exhibitor’s pack.

NOTES FOR PREPARING THE ABSTRACT FORM
It is essential that your abstract conforms to the preparation guidelines.

ABSTRACT DEADLINE: 28 January 2005

Please read carefully.

1. Registration is necessary for consideration, presentation and publication of the abstract. Submissions without a registration form will not be put forward for review.

2. Your abstract must be submitted in the format outlined below. Please provide one anonymous copy together with a referenced version saved to USB or disk (MS Word), which should be clearly labelled with the presenting author’s name. Alternatively, you may send it by email to: andy@mediscript.ltd.uk. If you wish to submit via email, it is still necessary to send an anonymous version and a fully referenced version of your abstract along with the relevant details contained on the abstract submission form.

3. A maximum of 200 words is allowed, excluding title, author name(s) and attribution(s). Abstracts which are longer than 200 words will be arbitrarily cut and penalties will be imposed. Please use short, specific titles and standard abbreviations (which, nevertheless, must be defined).

4. Accepted abstracts will be published in the conference abstract publication and the BHIVA journal, HIV Medicine. Abstracts will be reproduced from the disk or emailed document provided. Presentations need not be exclusive to this meeting and may be presented elsewhere. It is the responsibility of the author to obtain permission, where necessary, for publication of the abstract in HIV Medicine.

5. Abstract titles should use initial capitals only. The author(s) initials, last name, and institution should follow the title. Underline presenting author.

6. The abstract should be informative and contain a brief statement of the study’s objective, a concise statement of methods, a clear presentation of results and a conclusion (see example opposite).

7. All abstracts will be reviewed by the Abstract Review Committee, which will allocate abstracts to be presented either orally or as a poster. The Abstract Review Committee will contact you to confirm which format your abstract is to take. Delegates submitting successful poster abstracts will be given details of the required poster format. Oral presentations will be allocated a maximum of 10 minutes, which is to include time for questions. The six best posters will be invited to present orally. These presentations will each be allocated a maximum of 5 minutes, to include time for questions.

8. Additional abstract forms can be downloaded from the websites: www.bhiva.org or www.bashh.org

9. You may be eligible for an award or scholarship. Please see the awards and scholarships pages.

Tenoforv in the treatment of hepatitis B (HBV)/HIV co-infected individuals
Y Gilleece, MR Nelson, A Clarke, M Fisher, M Bower, M Atkins, BG Gazzard
Chelsea and Westminster Hospital, London, UK
Aim: To investigate the use of tenoforv in HBV/HIV co-infected individuals.
Methods: An open-label study of HBV/HIV co-infected individuals receiving tenoforv.
Results: 40 co-infected HBeAg +ve individuals were identified, 39 male and one female, with a median age of 37 years. They received tenoforv at 245 mg once a day for 48 weeks, or in addition to, their combination antiretroviral therapy, all were lamivudine-experienced, with a median exposure of 72 weeks (range 6–270). 60% of those who underwent HBV DNA polymerase sequencing had a mutation in the YMDD motif. The median CD4 count rose from 271 (baseline) to 386 (48 weeks) and 488 cells/µl at 96 weeks. Similarly, the CD4% rose from baseline to 96 weeks (19.2% to 24% to 22.5%). The median HBV DNA level fell from 250 × 10^6 to <10,000 copies/ml at 96 weeks. 25/40 (63%) had an undetectable HBV by 48 weeks. 14/14 (100%) who reached 96 weeks had an undetectable HBV DNA level. Eight individuals became HBeAg-ve between 36 and 96 weeks, and six seroconverted to HBeAb+ve. Three of these six had lamivudine-resistant mutations at baseline. All eight individuals remained HBsAg+ve.
Conclusion: Tenoforv is effective against HBV in HIV co-infected lamivudine-experienced individuals.

Check List:

BHIVA Science Scholarship

BHIVA Science Scholarships are available for scientists wishing to attend the conference. Up to ten awards will be available to those studying for a PhD or M.D. Candidates must be in full-time posts and apply in writing when submitting their abstracts by 28 January 2005. For those abstracts accepted for presentation, all registration fees, a contribution of a maximum of £100 towards travel expenses and accommodation costs (maximum 3 nights at £70 per night) will be paid for by BHIVA.

BHIVA Community Scholarships

BHIVA Community Scholarships will be awarded to up to ten UK-based community registrants to attend the conference to cover registration fees, a contribution of a maximum of £100 towards travel expenses and accommodation costs (maximum 3 nights at £70 per night). Please apply in writing when submitting your registration form. All applications must be received by 18 February 2005.

Abbott Travelling Scholarships in collaboration with BHIVA

Abbott will be providing scholarships to practising HIV doctors from resource-poor countries to travel to the UK for training purposes. The objective is to increase their understanding of the treatment and management of HIV and to disseminate this information and experience when they return to their country of origin.

Any UK centre collaborating with overseas hospitals should enquire about the programme from the BHIVA Secretariat. Candidates will be selected upon approval of their health authorities and a shortlist will be supplied to the BHIVA Review Committee for the final selection.

Bristol-Myers Squibb Scholarships

Bristol-Myers Squibb Scholarships will be awarded to the five best abstract presentations as judged by an expert scientific panel. To qualify for a scholarship, applicants must be of junior grade or under 35 years of age. Each scholarship is worth £1,000.
Dublin 2005

BRIAN GAZZARD LECTURESHP IN HIV MEDICINE

Submission deadline: 18 February 2005

Background
The lectureship has been set up in honour of the first Chairman of the British HIV Association, Professor Brian Gazzard, and BHIVA will be inviting applications for this prestigious award for the first time at the Joint BHIVA/BASHH Conference in Dublin, 2005.

Aims
To invite an applicant under the age of 45, whether clinically or non-clinically qualified to present a lecture in the field of HIV medicine that relates to the clinical management, pathogenesis or basic science of HIV infection. The winner of the award will be offered £1,000 as an honorarium and a contribution towards travel expenses will be given.

Conditions
1. The lecturer must be a BHIVA member.
2. The subject of the lecture must be in the field of HIV medicine and may relate to either the clinical management, pathogenesis or basic science of HIV infection.
3. In the selection of the lecturer, preference will be given to a lecture based on original work, but this need not be considered an absolute condition of the appointment.
4. Candidates will be asked to give written permission for their manuscripts to be copied, displayed on the Association’s website, sent out upon request to BHIVA members, and published in HIV Medicine unless, or until, the paper is published elsewhere.
5. Candidates must be under the age of 45 years, and either clinically or non-clinically qualified.
6. All submissions must be received by 18 February 2005, no submissions will be reviewed prior to this date and no submissions will be accepted for review after the deadline has expired.

Applications
1. Candidates should submit an abstract of approximately 600 words with slides. Abstracts must include methodology, results, conclusions, a list of any publications and be suitably referenced.
2. Submissions should be made preferably by email to andy@mediscript.ltd.uk. Alternatively, four copies of typewritten submissions should be sent to the Conference Secretariat.
3. Each submission should be suitable for presentation within 30 minutes.

BRIAN GAZZARD ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

Background
This annual award, which is being generously supported by Tibotec and Virco has been created to mark the contributions made by Professor Brian Gazzard for the treatment and management of HIV both in the UK and internationally.

Aims
The scholarship is to support a research project selected by Professor Brian Gazzard from applications received and then submitted to the Tibotec and Virco Management for final authorisation to proceed.

The scholarship will be awarded annually for 5 years and will have the value of €10,000. The first award will be announced at the 11th Annual Conference of the British HIV Association (BHIVA) with the British Association of Sexual Health and HIV (BASHH), Burlington Hotel, Dublin, 20–23 April 2005.

Conditions
1. The award is open to all and no criteria has yet been established in order to encourage a broad group of applicants.
2. It would be advisable for applicants to submit outline proposals (500 words) for consideration to the Conference Secretariat, preferably via email to andy@mediscript.ltd.uk. Please also complete the application form below and forward to the Conference Secretariat.
3. All applications would be considered by Professor Gazzard and further detailed proposals will then be requested before a short list is prepared for final consideration.
4. The deadline for outline proposals is 18 February 2005.
5. Detailed plans will be required from those selected for the shortlist. The deadline for detailed plans is 25 March 2005.

Panoramic City Tour
1000 years of history and culture from the comfort of your coach. (Half day tour)

Full immersion in the cultural delights of the city – interior visits included. Let us take you back 1000 years to the origins of this intriguing city which has played host to Vikings, Normans and Anglo-Saxons without allowing its native Celtic spirit to be even vaguely diluted! Places of interest include Trinity College Dublin, the elegant Georgian buildings of Merrion Square and Dublin Castle to name but a few.

Powerscourt House and Gardens
Stunning scenery, a glimpse of Ireland’s monastic and aristocratic past and some excellent shopping for good measure. (Full day tour with lunch)

Powerscourt House and Gardens is located in a stunning natural setting at Enniskerry, Co Wicklow, approximately 45 minutes from Dublin city centre. A magnificent period home dating from mid 18th century, overlooking wonderful terraced gardens and an ornamental lake, Powerscourt House was partially destroyed by fire in 1974. A long restoration project ensued during which the ballroom and the garden rooms were rebuilt. On site at Powerscourt is also Ireland’s premier shopping emporium ‘Avoca Handweavers’. After lunch the tours takes in a fully guided tour of the world famous Japanese gardens. The Japanese gardens are simply one of Ireland’s most spectacular gardens with rare exotic plants, wetlands, woodlands and majestic walks. Take time to explore the Black Abbey founded in 1212, located within the extensive grounds.

Date: Thursday 21 April
Depart: 0900
Return: 1730
Price: €65.00 per person

Newgrange
Older than the Pyramids ... (Full day tour with lunch)

In the heart of the Boyne Valley, Newgrange is one of the finest examples of a prehistoric passage tomb. You will visit the Brú na Boinne Visitor Centre, which will interpret the archaeological heritage of the Boyne Valley, which includes the megalithic passage tombs of Newgrange and Knowth. Older than the Pyramids of Egypt, Stonehenge and Mycenae, one must marvel at the antiquity and complexity of this United Nation’s World Heritage site. The architectural and artistic sensibility of the ancient Celtic people can be seen in the beautifully balanced constructions and in the wonderful spiral carvings that adorn the stonework. This is a true discovery excursion where you learn something of an ancient and sophisticated people who flourished before the Pyramids were built.

Date: Friday 22 April
Depart: 0900
Return: 1730
Price: €70.00 per person

Malahide Castle and North Dublin Coastal Tour
Step back in time, see the famous Malahide Castle and enjoy the views on this coastal trail. (Half day tour)

Drive to Malahide via the north Dublin coast road taking in picturesque views of Howth and surrounding areas. Howth is a picturesque fishing village with an abundance of pubs and restaurants and plenty of places to stroll. Malahide, which means ‘on the brow of the sea’ is a village nine miles north of Dublin. The castle is close to the village and is built on a small rise, which commands a view of the bay. Malahide is a 12th century castle, one of Ireland’s oldest and most historic with an excellent collection of period furniture, and oil portraits.

Date: Saturday 23 April
Depart: 0900
Return: 1300
Price: €55.00 per person

SOCIAL EVENTS

Welcome Reception
Hosted by Mary Harney T.D., Tánaiste and Minister for Health and Children, Ireland

City Hall
Dame Street, Dublin
Wednesday 20 April 2005
1930–2100

City Hall, originally the Royal Exchange, was designed by Thomas Cooley and built between 1769 and 1779. It now houses a permanent multi-media exhibition ‘Dublin’s City Hall – The Story of the Capital’. The exhibition centres on many of the historic events which have impacted on the City of Dublin since its foundation over 1000 years ago.

We are honoured to be able to welcome Mary Harney to this prestigious venue to open the conference formally. This will be preceded by a drinks reception and light buffet. Please indicate on your registration form if you would like to attend this event.

Buffet Supper

Guinness Storehouse
St James’s Gate, Dublin
Thursday 21 April 2005
From 2000 onwards

Tickets are required  Coaches will be provided

Built in 1904, Guinness Storehouse is an incredible building. It is set in the centre of one of the world’s most famous breweries, in one of the world’s most vibrant cities. The storehouse’s massive cast iron beams originally supported the weight of vast vats filled with Guinness in various stages of brewing. Amazingly it’s core is a vast giant glass pint stretching from the Atrium to Gravity, the bar in the sky.

Coaches will pick up from the Burlington Hotel and take delegates for the short 15 minute journey to Guinness Storehouse. The evening will begin with a drink and a tour of the facilities followed by a buffet supper. Be sure to enjoy a pint of Guinness in the world famous Gravity Bar offering spectacular views over Dublin. Please order your ticket by ticking the box on your registration form. Places are limited and will be allocated on a first-come first-served basis.

Gala Dinner

Royal Hospital Kilmainham
Military Road, Dublin
Friday 22 April 2005
From 2000 onwards

Tickets are required  Coaches will be provided

The Royal Hospital was built in the 17th century but is home to a unique blend of old and new. Since 1991 it has been home to the Irish Museum of Modern Art, one of the most exciting developments in the visual arts in Ireland for many years. The hospital is set in 48 acres of formal landscaped gardens and tree-lined avenues. Classical in style and unique in setting the Royal Hospital has gained a superb reputation as a lavish venue.

The Gala Dinner will commence with a drinks reception and be followed by dinner and entertainment. Coaches will collect delegates from various hotel stops for the short journey to the Royal Hospital. Please purchase your ticket for the Gala Dinner by ticking the box on your registration form. Places are limited and will be allocated on a first-come first-served basis.

INFORMATION ON DUBLIN

Ireland is an English speaking island on the north western edge of Europe. It is 486 km/300 miles long and 275 km/150 miles wide. Ireland has 3,172 km/1,970 miles of coastline – the longest coastline per head of population in Europe. The capital city of Ireland is Dublin.

Dublin

Dublin has always been renowned for its strong tradition of entertainment and hospitality and modern-day Dublin continues to embody these characteristics. Over the past 20 years Dublin has continued to confirm it’s place as a premier city within the European Union and both BHIVA and BASHH are delighted that the city is able to host our first truly joint conference. The city boasts an array of historic buildings which have been influenced by its Danish, Norman and English antecedants.

Currency

The currency of the Republic of Ireland is the EURO. All major credit cards are accepted for payment in hotels, restaurants and shops.

Passport and visa information

Everyone entering Ireland must have a valid passport or in the case of European Union Member States, a national identity card. Visas are required from some countries. Please note that it can take 8 weeks to process a visa application; early application is recommended.

TRAVEL

Flights

Dublin International Airport, situated 10 km north of the city centre, is connected with all major European and International airports. Aer Lingus is Ireland’s national air carrier and provides numerous routes worldwide. Other neighbouring international airports include Belfast (167 km to Dublin City) and Shannon (222 km to Dublin City).

Boat

High speed or conventional ferries operate between the UK and Dublin. Conventional ferries operate from France to either Rosslare or Cork. For further information, please contact www.irishferries.com or www.stenaline.com

Airport coaches

Coaches leave Dublin Airport every 15 minutes and take passengers into the heart of Dublin city centre. The coaches, which are blue in colour, stop off at a number of hotels along the way. Coaches take approx 30–40 minutes to reach the conference venue, the Burlington Hotel. A single ticket costs €7. The coaches are very comfortable and are a good way to see some of the sites of the city.

Buses

Dublin International Airport is accessible by over 700 buses daily. You can get to and from the airport by bus from many areas inside and outside of Dublin. Regular transport services in Dublin operate from 0600–2345. Dublin Bus provides an extensive network of bus routes. It operates an exact change system (Autofare) whereby coins (no notes) are entered into a slot/chute on entry to the bus and a ticket is issued. Special rambler tickets can be purchased in shops around the city that enable unlimited travel for 1/3/5 days on all Dublin Bus routes. Dublin Area Rapid Transport (DART) is an electrified train service operating for approximately 35 km along the East Coast from beyond Howth in the North to beyond Bray in the South. It serves three stations in Dublin City centre: Connolly, Tara Street and Pearse. Tickets can be bought for this at each station.

Taxis

If you decide not to take the Airport coaches you may wish to take a taxi to the Burlington Hotel in which case the journey will take approximately 20–30 minutes depending on traffic. You can expect to pay anywhere between €20 and €30 for a single journey. Taxis in Dublin can be very expensive.
