

BASHH Doctors in Training Weekend

24th & 25th September 2010

Call for Clinical Case Presentations!

£150

Prize for Best Presentation!

We are inviting submissions of clinical cases to present at the forthcoming BASHH Doctors in Training weekend. Cases can focus on any aspect of clinical care in Genitourinary medicine. Selected speakers will be given 10 minutes to present their case (8 minutes to present and 2 minutes for questions). Presentations must be submitted on powerpoint slides. Not only is there a prize of £150 for the best presentation but this is also a great opportunity to present at a national meeting!

Deadline for submission: 31st August 2010

Please send slides and any queries to:
