BASHH Annual Conference Scholarships 2016

Silver Scholarship

Eligibility
The first author of the accepted abstract (oral presentation only) must be a BASHH member working in sexual health, HIV or associated topic and be a:

- Doctor in training
- SAS doctor: speciality doctor, associate specialist, clinical assistant or staff grade
- Masters level or PhD student

Bronze Scholarship

Eligibility
The first author of the accepted abstract (either oral or poster presentation) must be working in a sexual health or HIV medicine setting and be a:

- Medical student
- Nursing student
- Other undergraduate
- UK based nurse, health adviser or other allied health professional

Consultants, senior lecturers or clinical academics at senior lecturer level or above are not eligible for scholarships.

Scholarship benefits:
1. Complimentary conference registration
2. £300 towards travel and accommodation
3. Complimentary gala dinner ticket

Application:
Recipient must attend whole 3 days of conference.
Scholarships will be awarded by the scientific committee.

Scholarships will not be awarded if successful applicants do not attend whole conference.
Travel/accommodation support will be given on submission of receipts.